What ultimately ended World War III?
A) The invention of the meridium bomb.
B) The collapse of the Germexican banking system.
C) The withdrawal of Britalian troops from Moon Base 1.
D) All of the above.

After the craziness of lunch I can barely focus on my history test.

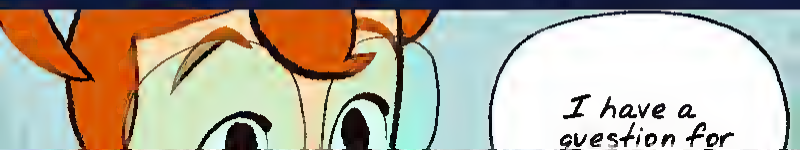
I'll go with D, I guess.

Seems like a safe bet.

True or false, the Global Alliance was formed to broker peace talks in the aftermath of World War III.
T/F
Hmmm...

I should probably go...

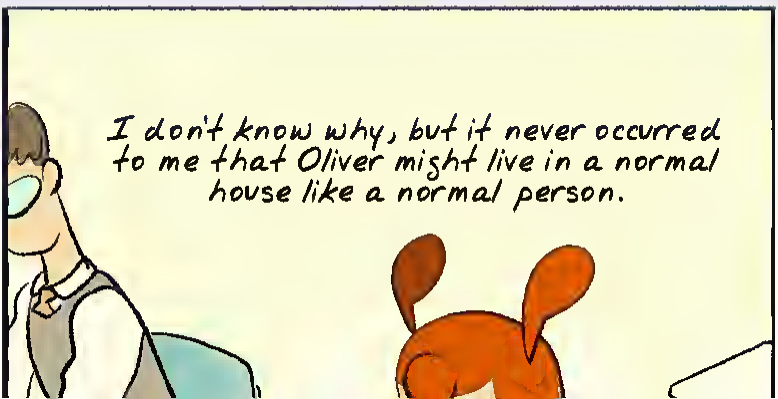
Wait--



you--
Yes?
Um--
I'm supposed to design this float for the homecoming parade, and--
I suck at drawing, and--
Well, I was wondering if you could help me sketch something out.

It's for the agriculture club.
We want to build sort of a pumpkin palace kind of thing.
I could do that.
Why don't you come over to my house this afternoon?
We can work on it together.
Your house?
Yeah,

you the address...

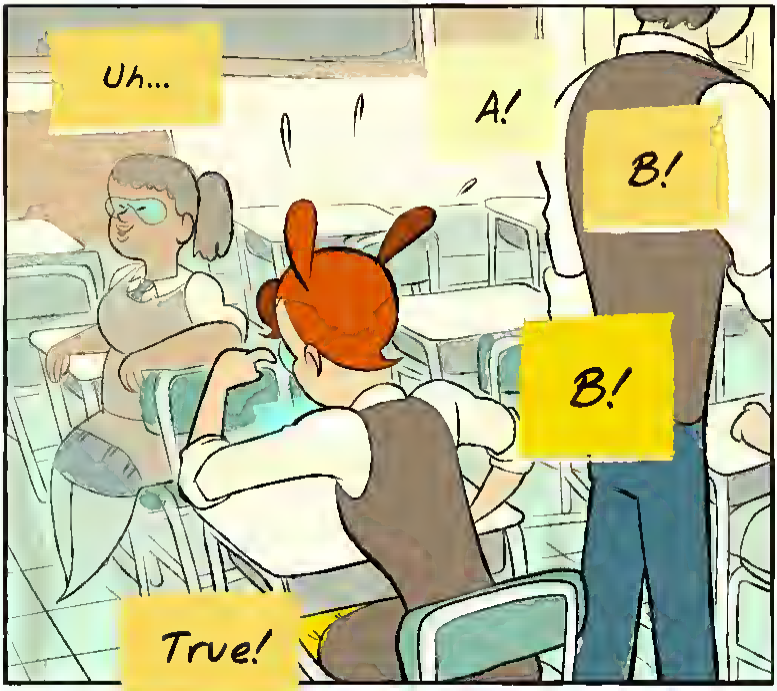


I don't know why, but it never occurred to me that Oliver might live in a normal house like a normal person.

I think part of me assumed he lived in the forest behind the school, or maybe on a rooftop somewhere...
Hee hee.

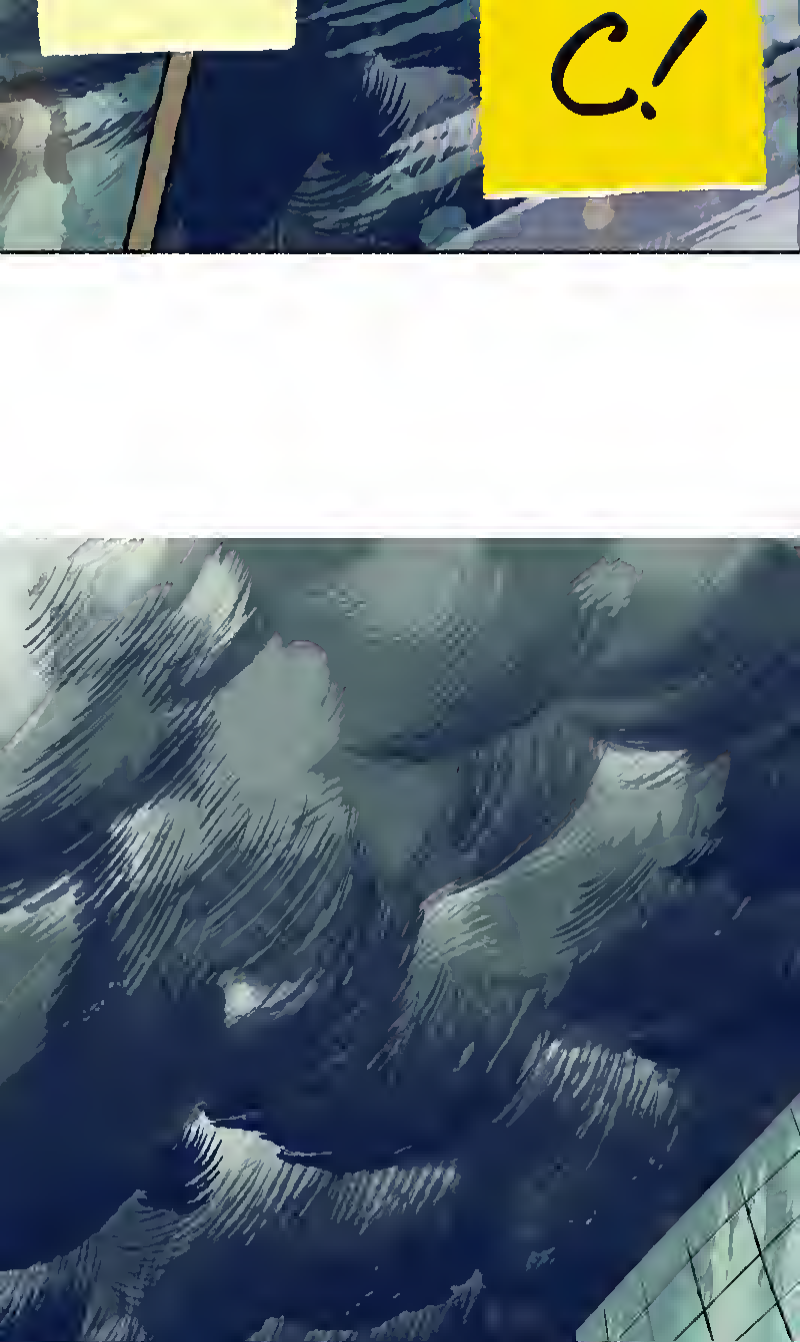
RINNNGG!
Okay, people!
Turn in your exams!

I still have eight questions left!



Uh...
A!
B!
B!
True!

False!

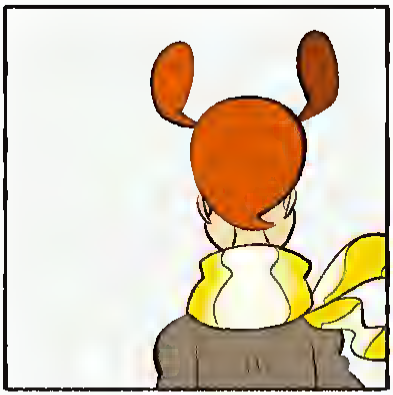


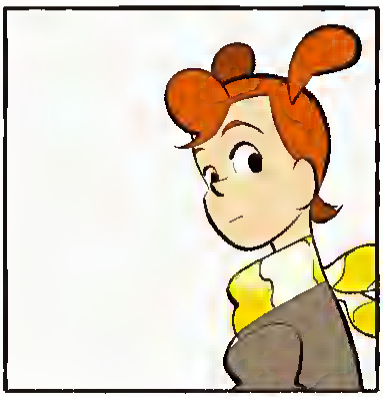
C!

Oh man, I hope I didn't just fail that test.

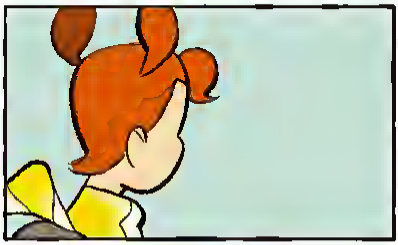
History is so hard!
How am I supposed to know all that stuff?
I didn't grow up on Earth--

I wasn't even awake for the last thirty years!

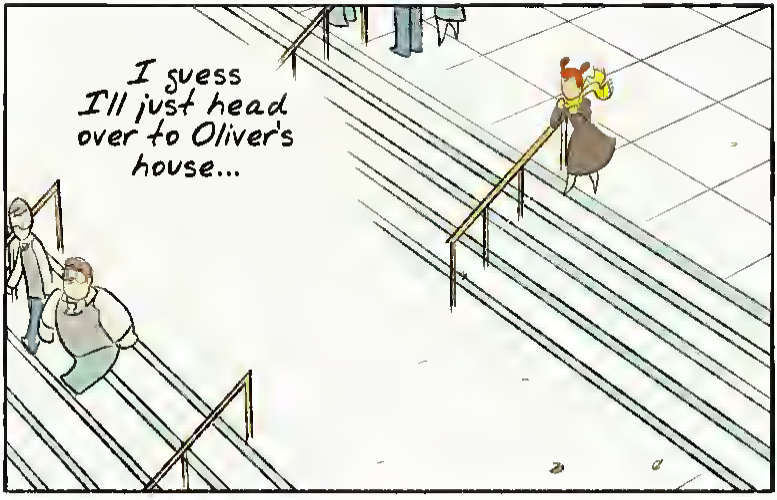




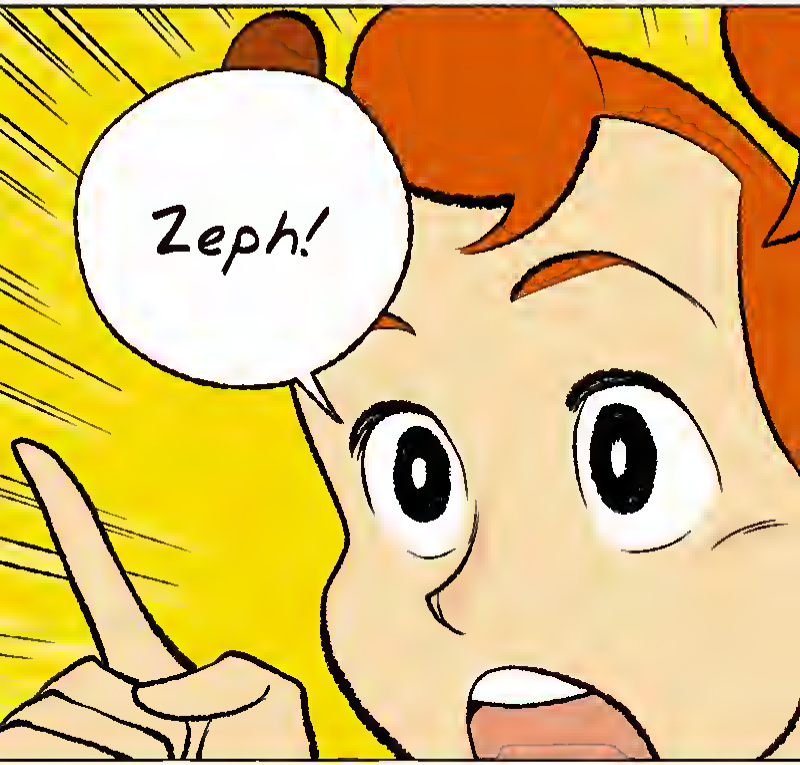
Hey...
Wasn't I supposed to meet up with someone after school?



Huh.
I can't remember.



I guess I'll just head over to Oliver's house...



That's right--
I was going meet Zeph in front of the library!

MAIN OFFICE
Hi, Ms. Martinez.
David!

Ready for the big game?
Yes, ma'am.
What can I do for you, sweetie?

I'm trying to get a hold of another student but I can't find his contact info.
I tried searching online but I only know his first name.
Hmmm.
Have you checked the student directory?
I didn't know we had one.

What's his name?
Well there's your answer, honey.
Let me look that up for you real quick...
Oliver.
tap tap tap
Okay...
Let's see here...
Hmmm.
That's odd...
What is it?

Are you sure his name is Oliver?
Yes, ma'am.
Well, I don't know what to tell you...
He's not in the system.
There is no one named Oliver at this school.
